Dear Sir or Madam:

I just read an article regarding the poor pay teachers are receiving and their impending strike. I also read where the ratio of administrators to staff is 1 to 7:5. Your teachers can't afford housing and many of them have to work extra jobs to make ends meet. You should be ashamed. Looking at the relative number of administrators you obviously have a good old boy/girl club that needs to be dealt with.

I hope you deal fairly with your teachers and give them the pay they need to live comfortably in the Denver area while continuing to provide a fine education to the children.
